ABHES BULLETIN

To: ABHES-Accredited Institutions and Programs
From: Carol A. Moneymaker, Executive Director
Re: Gainful Employment – Reporting Reminder, due November 15, 2011
Date: November 10, 2011

As a reminder, for institutions participating in federal student aid programs, recently the United States Department of Education (Department) included a response in the gainful employment Frequently Asked Questions document, R-Q&A29. The Department states that it will “NOT be granting extensions to the required reporting date of November 15, 2011.” The Department stated that the rules were published on October 29, 2010, and the Department has held a number of webinars. The response also stated that the Program Compliance teams will determine, on a case-by-case basis, “what, if any sanctions may be imposed on an institution” who fails to submit its gainful employment information to the Department.

Please determine immediately if this reporting requirement pertains to your institution and note the deadline date of November 15, 2011. Contact your regional representative at the Department with any questions.
