2024 Master Teacher Award

Attention: ABHES-Accredited Institutions and Programs

Do you know an outstanding Allied Health faculty member who shows exceptional skill, innovation, and effectiveness in promoting student learning, professionalism, and self-confidence?

Nominate them for the 2024 Master Teacher Award!

Elsevier, the world's leading health science information provider, is pleased to partner with the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES) to present the annual Master Teacher Award!

Suitable areas of innovation include, but are not limited to:

- Active teaching methods to engage learners
- Successful practices for positively impacting student retention
- Innovative integration of clinical experiences
- Unique use of multimedia, technology, e-learning tools, or simulations
- Innovative educational strategies for instilling soft skills, such as professionalism, in students

The recipient of the 2024 Master Teacher Award will attend the 20th Annual National Conference on Allied Health Education at the Aria Resort & Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, on March 27-28, 2024, as a guest* of Elsevier and ABHES. The winner will present his or her winning practice to attendees during the awards ceremony. In addition, the recipient will receive a $500 cash prize.
